Clementine

In a cavern, in a canyon Excavating for a mine Dwelt a miner, forty-niner And his daughter Clementine

Light she was, and like a fairy And her shoes were number nine Herring boxes without topses Sandals were for Clementine

Chorus

Oh my darling, oh my darling Oh my darling Clementine You are lost and gone forever I'm so sorry, Clementine

Walking lightly as a fairy Though her shoes were number nine Sometimes tripping, lightly skipping Lovely girl, my Clementine

Drove the ducklings to the water Every morning just at nine Hit her foot against a splinter Fell into the foaming brine

Chorus

Then the miner, forty-niner
Soon began to fret and pine
Thought he oughter join his daughter
So he's now with Clementine

I'm so lonely, lost without her Wish I'd had a fishing line Which I might have cast about her Might have saved my Clementine

Chorus

Oh my darling, oh my darling Oh my darling Clementine You are lost and gone forever Dreadful sorry, Clementine

Listen fellers, heed the warning Of this tragic tale of mine

Artificial respiration Could have saved my Clementine

How I missed her, how I missed her How I missed my Clementine Til I kissed her little sister And forgot my Clementine
