

Six Little Ducks

Six little ducks that I once knew Sad ones, happy ones, some like you But the one little duck with the feathers on his back Waddled to his mama with a quack, quack,
quack
Quack, quack, quack. Quack, quack, quack Waddled to his mama with a quack, quack,
quack

Five little ducks that I once knew Silly ones, funny ones, some like you
But the one little duck with the feathers on
his back
Waddled to the shore with a quack, quack,
quack
Quack, quack, quack. Quack, quack, quack
Waddled to the shore with a quack, quack,
quack

Four little ducks that I once knew Jolly ones, bright ones, some like you
But the one little duck with the feathers on
his back
Waddled through the water with a quack,
quack, quack
Quack, quack, quack. Quack, quack, quack
Waddled through the water with a quack,
quack, quack

Three little ducks that I once knew Old ones, young ones, some like you
But the one little duck with the feathers on
his back
Waddled up a hill with a quack, quack, quack
Quack, quack, quack. Quack, quack, quack
Waddled up a hill with a quack, quack, quack

Two little ducks that I once knew Play together, just like you
But the one little duck with the feathers on
his back
Waddled by a frog with a quack, quack,
quack
Quack, quack, quack. Quack, quack, quack Waddled by a frog with a quack, quack,

One little duck that I once knew A happy little duck, the same as you This one little duck with the feathers on his back Waddled to his family with a quack, quack,
quack
Quack, quack, quack. Quack, quack, quack
Waddled to his family with a quack, quack,
quack
